

VEGETABLES IN THE DRC - ANNEX

Main vegetables that are grown in the DRC
YUCCA	 A photograph showing several pieces of cassava roots. Some are whole, while others are cut into slices, revealing their white, starchy interior. They are resting on a wooden surface.
BANANA	 A photograph of a bunch of ripe yellow bananas, with some sliced into rounds, set against a plain white background.
CORN	 A photograph of several ears of yellow corn cobs and a pile of yellow corn kernels, all set against a white background.
PEANUT	 A photograph of a collection of peanut shells and kernels, some whole and some broken, set against a white background.
RICE	 A photograph of a wooden bowl filled with white, cooked rice, with a wooden spoon resting inside. The bowl is set against a white background.
COFFEE	 A photograph of a pile of dark brown, roasted coffee beans, set against a white background.
SUGAR	 A photograph of several white sugar cubes, some whole and some broken, set against a white background.
COCOA	 A photograph of a cocoa pod, partially open to reveal the dark brown cocoa beans inside, set against a white background.